If You Read This

It will be to learn that the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung disease (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous, harmful or habit-forming drugs and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful agent in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

JAPAN AND AMERICA.

Admiral Baron Yamamoto, one of Japan's naval experts, yesterday met for the first time President Roosevelt, the man who, more than any other man, was responsible for the conclusion of peace between Japan and Russia, after a prolonged war, during which Admiral Yamamoto was Japan's minister of marine.

In a private conversation the representatives of the two countries discussed the cloud which has been hovering over the long-lasting friendship between Japan and America, and each expressed the opinion that it was merely a passing shadow, and one which could in no way reach a climax that would shake the confidence each country has had in the other since the day Commodore Perry induced the Tokogawa Shugun to open the island empire to cummunication with the outside world.

Admiral Yamamoto, in these conversations, repeated the statements which he has made on several occasions since he arrived in New York, that any feeling that there might be in Japan because of occurrences on the Pacific coast was directed solely against the people of that section of the country, and that there was no possible chance of this feeling reaching a point where trouble between the governments would be possible.

Admiral Yamamoto and the members of his suite said that yesterday's meeting had done much to brush away any possibility of a misunderstanding between the two countries.

The following official statement regarding the visit to Oyster Bay was later given out there by Secretary Loeb:

"The President had a long interview with Admiral Baron Yamamoto, and it was most satisfactory in every way. It simply confirms (what had already been made clear by Ambassador Aoki) the thoroughly good understanding between the two governments and the fundamental friendliness between the two nations."

The Doctor Away from Home when Most Needed.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and cholera morbus require prompt treatment, and have in many instances proven fatal before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Dirrahoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. By having it in the house you escape much pain and suffering and all risk. Buy it now; it may save life. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

AGREEMENT REACHED.

An agreement has been reached between the Secretary of War and the representatives of the Catholic Church in the Philippine Islands regarding a number of important matters of controversy, which will obviate the necessity of prolonging threatening vexatious litigation. Regarding the landed properties, the agreement provides that the Roman Catholic Church, through the Archbishop of Manila, shall possess in absolute title the land and property pertaining to the Hospital of San Jose, the Hospital of San Juan de Dios, the College of San Jose, the Hospital of San Jose in Cavite and the College of Santa Isabella. These properties were valued at $2,066,000. The church relinquishes to the government of the Philippines all claims and demands upon the estate of Santa Potenciana, and upon the hospital and foundation of San Lazaro, except that the archbishop is to retain possession of the block in which the present Santa Cruz Cemetery is situated and of 50 hectares north of the hospital.

The Spanish Filipino Bank dispute was also settled, by which all claims to exclusive privileges and to note issues beyond the amount approved by the American government are abandoned; but, on the other hand, the bank receives the confirmation without litigation and important privileges.

I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptons only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me today for sample and free Book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

PECULIAR FATAL ACCIDENT.

A peculiar and fatal accident occurred in Richmond Thursday afternoon. Wm. R. Goode, a man of about 25 years, employed in the plant of the Richmond Type and Electrotype Company, was assisting in repairing a printing press. He was holding a piece of steel which was being driven by a sledgehammer in the hands of one of the managers of the concern.

The manager struck a hard blow on the steel, and a small sliver from the hammer flew off. The piece of steel from the hammer was not more than a thirty-second part of an inch in thickness and only about a quarter of an inch long. Goode gasped and said he had been hurt. The sliver had struck him in the right breast, going through his clothing. It was thought at first that his injury was of a trivial nature, but about nine o'clock at night he was taken seriously ill, and a physician was summoned to attend him. Goode continued to grow worse, and at 1 o'clock yesterday morning he died. An autopsy was made, and it was disclosed that the piece of steel from the hammer had cut through his clothing and had entered the liver, going through that organ.

BEARS AT Mt. ELLIOTT SPRINGS.

Great excitement was caused at Mt. Elliott Springs last Sunday by the sudden appearance of five bears that had come down from the mountain to feed in the truck patch of the hotel. Bears are frequently seen in the mountain forests near Mt. Elliott, but it is rare indeed that a whole family should come down so boldly into the settlement. When discovered the wild animals were quietly feeding on the young corn in the truck patch just north of the gardener's house. They were first seen by two young ladies of the hotel who chanced to be strolling up the road. At first they were taken for a lot of black hogs, but on closer approach the young ladies were horrified to find the animals were wild bears—two full grown and three cubs. The ladies in great fright ran screaming back to the hotel and gave the alarm. Chase was given, but the bears, as much frightened as the young ladies, made their escape to the mountains. Lewis Woods, without gun or other weapon at hand, pursued them into the brush hoping to capture a cub. This he would have done, but when within easy of his prey, the mother bear turned on him so fiercely that he had to abandon the chase.—[Staunton Spectator.

A GOOD SHOT.

There is an old Confederate soldier now visiting some friends in Greenbrier county, W. Va., who was a holy terror in battle. He was a shot from way back. He came to the reunion at Richmond and stopped off. Among his feats of marksmanship the following simple exploits, we are told, are performed. He can suspend a bottle by a string, shoot and cut the string, and then break the bottle with another shot before it hits the ground With a small calibre gun and a large lead pencil he can knock the lead out when the pencil is thrown into the air, and not injure the wood covering. A favorite pastime with him is to start a barrel rolling down hill and put a bullet through the bung hole every time the barrel turns over. We call this good shooting.—Staunton Spectator.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, JULY 13, 1907.

HAVING bought out the principal funeral companies in Vienna and assumed the responsibility for carrying on the undertaking business of the whole city, the municipality has decided to go a step further, by introducing a system of burial insurance, covering not only the cost of the funeral and of the grave, but also, when desired, the erection of a suitable monument in addition. All this is to be carried out through the medium of the Emperor Francis Joseph Jubilee Life Insurance Company, an institution which forms yet another department of the city's municipal activity. The insured must be between the ages of eighteen and fifty, in good health, and not engaged in any dangercus occupation. In the event of death occurring within six months from the date of insurance the policy will be void, and the premiums paid will be returned. By payment of a capital sum the company will agree to keep graves in order and to decorate and illuminate them on the feast of All Souls in every year so long as the cemetery is in existence. Something of this kind will soon have to be started in this country, if not people will be afraid to die lest their estates will not pay their funeral expenses.

HOME-MADE pie received its death blow at the hands of the Agricultural Department yesterday, which, with the same blow killed the pie trust. After the present season pie factories which turn out "home-made" pies will not be allowed to use benzate of soda or benzoic acid. During the remainder of the season they will be allowed to use not to exceed one-tenth of one per cent of this acid. The makers of pie declared their business would be ruined if they were not allowed time in which to adjust themselves for the preparation of pie filling in which this preservative is not used. The Secretary of Agriculture decided to grant the time, because if the law should be enforced now one of the largest pie manufacturers in the country would have a complete monopoly, as it uses no preservative. Pie eaters, for their stomach's sake, should refrain from eating pie during the time required by the makers to adjust themselves.

A RESOLUTION was yesterday adopted at The Hague conference to the effect that a declaration of war should precede the opening of hostilities, but a proposed addendum that an interval of twenty-four hours should elapse between the declaration and the striking of the first blow was voted down. The usefulness of the resolution shorn of the proposed addendum is not very evident. If it be intended to prevent surprises, like those of the Russian ships at Chemulpo and before Port Arthur, the intent could be readily defeated. Naval officers could be apprised beforehand of the purpose of their government to issue a formal declaration at a stated hour on a day fixed, and hostile action might, as heretofore, be the first notice to the party attacked that war had broken out. The Hague conference does not seem to be doing much in the interest of peace.

GENERAL MANAGER NEELAND, of the Pan American Railway, has closed arrangements with San Salvador for a $5,000,000 subsidy for the construction of the section of the great Intercontinental Railway through that country. This completes the rights of way through all the Central American republics except Guatemala, and makes it probable that communication by rail will be established from Los Angeles to Guatemala City by January 1, 1908. It will probably not be many year before railroad excursion trains are run from this country to Panama in order that the excursionists may witness the digging of the canal.

LEGISLATIVE candidates all over Virginia are receiving communications from dentists and physicians of the State asking that the license tax be removed on members of both professions. License taxes are onerous to all men but no more so to dentists and physicians than to any other class. Taxes are to support the government and must be paid by all citizens alike. There seems, however, to be a disposition among some to put all the licenses taxes on merchants, which is altogether wrong. They have their burdens as well as the doctors—and many of them heavier.

From Washington.

Washington, July 13.

News received at the State Department from the Hague indicates a probability that the peace conference will agree to the proposition that there must be a declaration of war before the commencement of hostilities. It has not yet been determined what period of time must elapse between the declaration and the beginning of actual fighting, and that subject is still being threshed out in committees. Upon the main point, however, it looks as though the rules of warfare among civilized nations are going to be amended in this particular. The question was first brought forcibly to the attention of the world at the outset of the Russo-Japanese war, through the action of the Japanese in attacking two Russian cruisers in the harbor of Chemulpo, Korea, before war had been actually declared. Generally this action was condemned, and, recognizing the possible great advantages such a practice might give one belligerent over another, it is a question in which the United States has a vital interest, for in the improbable event of a war, especially on the Pacific, proximity of a hostile power to the Philippine Islands would enable it to concentrate its forces and probably seize the archipelago before the news that war had been declared could reach Washington. Especially would this be true if the cable were cut, which would probably be one of the objectives of the attacking party. Despite the recognition of this fact, the American delegates, as well as those of Great Britain and Japan, were at first unfavorably disposed towards the proposition, which was advanced by France, that declaration of war should precede hostilities. In the case of the United States representatives the reason for this was the fact that under the constitution Congress alone can can declare war, so that action by that body would be notification enough. All these powors have now, however, withdrawn their objections, and there now remains only the question of details.

There is an arraignment of the Standard Oil trust in the reply of the Interstate Commerce Commission to the suit of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company to enjoin the commission from enforcing its Brooklyn Terminal order. The case will be heard on Wednesday by Judge Ward, presiding in the United States circuit court for the southern district of New York. It will be the first case under the new railroad rate law that the courts have been appealed to by the railroad. Under the old law, when the commission made an order it had to go into the courts to secure its enforcement. Now the order becomes effective immediately and it is the railroad that has to go to court if it seeks a stoppage. The case is that of Preston and Davis, independent oil dealers, who complained that the railway company stopped deliveries of oil at the Brooklyn station, thereby seriously injuring their business. The excuse given was fear of fire. The commission after investigation ordered the railroad to renew the service. In answer to the railroad's motion for an injunction, Solicitor Haver, for the commission, declares that complaint against the independent dealers was not by an agent or representative of the railroad, but by an agent of the Standard Oil Company. Preston and Davis are active competitors with the Standard Oil Company, in the sale of oil at retail in Brooklyn, he added, "and the only object of the Standard in calling attention to the alleged risk was to hamper or disable Preston and Davis as such competitors."

Partial ouster proceedings have been instituted by the Department of Agriculture against the "pie trust." Benzoate of soda or benzoic acid used as a preservative of canned material for pies has been put under the ban by the food and drug inspection board of the Agriculture Department. The use of not to exceed one-tenth of 1 per cent. in manufacturers' products for the rest of the canning season is permitted provided each package be plainly marked.

In an interview in London Consul General Wynne says he has no grievance against Ambassador Reid because of some alleged slights in a social way. It is well known that Wynne cares nothing about the social end of his position. He says he has been treated courteously and that is all there is to it.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that two Japanese sightseers were ejected from the Washington navy yard this afternoon for attempting to take photographs with a small camera.

Vanderbilt Quick was today appointed postmaster at Falls Church, Fairfax county, Va., vice G. W. Hawxhurst, resigned.

Gen. Oliver, assistant Secretary of War, will leave tonight for Murray Bay, Canada, where he will join Secretary Taft. General Oliver will be absent for two or three weeks, Gen. Ainsworth acting as Secretary of War in the meantime.

No more unwholesome coloring matters or preservatives in the food products that enter interstate commerce is the dictum of the Board of Food and Drug Inspection, charged with enforcement of the pure food law.

Shot Neighbor Through Heart.

Boston, July 13—Because he fired at a neighbor's pet cat that had been killing his chickens, W. H. Reed, a popular young resident of Watertown, was shot through the heart and Michael Angelo, a brother-in-law of the neighbor who owned the cat, was arraigned this morning, charged with the murder. Mrs. Angleo appealed to the police who told her that Reed had a right to do as he threatened. Last night Reed saw the animal prowling about his place and shot at the feline, but missed it. He was standing in the doorway when a shot was fired from the direction of the Angelo house and Reed fell dead. Angelo was arrested at his home late last night.

The Haywood Trial.

Boise, Idaho, July 13.—The Haywood trial is nearing its climax. Haywood's cross-examination is over. But one more witness is to be called by the defense—an expert in the use of explosives upon which Haywood's lawyer expects to upset several stories Orchard told concerning dynamiting he professed to have done. Night sessions of court will be held when the arguments begin. Judge Wood hopes to have the case in the jury's hands by one week from tonight.

Secretary Wilson Saturday issued new regulations regarding the use of benzoate of soda and other preservatives in packing fruits and vegetables.

SIX PERSONS DROWNED.

A naptha launch containing nine persons was swept over a dam in the Conewango creek, at Russell, Pa, midway between Jamestown, N. Y., and Warren, Pa., yesterday afternoon, and six of the occupants were drowned.

Those who lost their lives were members of a picnic party from the C. H. Smith Department Store Company, of Warren. Two launches were in use by them, and one of them got fast on some piles in the creek not far from a high dam. The creek was swollen by two days' rain, and the piles, usually in sight, were submerged.

John Best, running the other boat, went down stream with his party to release the grounded boat. The current was swift, and when Best shut off the motor on his boat he found that it was being carried down stream rapidly.

Seeing the danger from the dam, over which a heavy sheet of water was pouring, he hastily tried to start the motor. The occupants of the grounded boat saw him struggling vainly to start his sparker, but before he succeeded the launch was carried against the dam, where it careened and went over the falls. None of the six who lost their lives was seen after the plunge. Three of those who went over the dam were rescued.

All of the victims were comparatively young people and of prominent families.

THOUGHT IT WAS AN EEL.

While bathing at Marshall Hall Thursday Richard Fitzgerald, one of the altar boys at St. Paul's Catholic Church, Washington, spied what he took to be a large eel. He grabbed for it, and it turned out to be an unusually large water snake. The snake bit the boy on the hand. Father Mackin and Father Krug, of St. Paul's, who had taken the altar boys on an outing at Marshall Hall, promptly gave the boy first aid. Father Krug sucked the poison from the bite, and with a penknife cut away a tiny piece of flesh surrounding the bite. Later a physician bound up the wound. The boy bore the pain attendant upon the treatment of the bite with great fortitude. No serious results are anticipated from the snake's bite.

STATE WILL BUY BONDS.

The State of Virginia is to ask for bids for $135,000 of State bonds for the sinking fund. Bids are to be opened about August 6. The bonds are to be cancelled and the interest paid into the sinking fund and the fund therefrom used to buy and retire more bonds from time to time. This purchase of bonds will bring the total bought to date for the sinking fund up to about $2,000,000, all of which have been cancelled and interest saved to the State. The curtailment of the debt is one that is especially gratifying to the State, the finances being so managed that the debt will, if the same ratio is maintained, be paid long before the maturity of the bonds.—[Richmond News Leader.

LAWYER SUES MAX LANSBURGH.

George E. Sullivan, a lawyer of Washington, has instituted a chancery suit in the Circuit Court of Prince William county against Max Lansburgh, of Baltimore, to recover a one-sixth interest in 4,300 acres of land on the Potomac river in Prince William county, and also certain profits. The property involved in the suit was bought a good many years ago by Anson Bangs, who failed to get the Panama canal contract, with the expectation of establishing certain enterprises on the river front.

RAILROAD CENSURED.

The State Corporation Commission, in an order issued yesterday, takes the Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Railway severely to task for laxity in the methods of operating that road, and prescribes for the government of the road a list of rules and regulations designed for the more thorough protection of the public patronage of the line.

Virtually, to all intents and purposes, the order places the road under the supervision and control of the commission, for it is ordered that the proceedings be kept upon the docket of the commission so that further orders may be entered therein, and further requirements made without additional notice to the company.

The order of the commission is the result of the recent disaster on the road, when one life was lost, and many others were injured. Among other things the order requires that the road operate and maintain an independent system of telephones establishing connection at all times when trains are running between the dispatcher's or operator's office and the various stops on the road, the telephones to be open and accessible at all times to both motormen and conductors and others employes of the road. It also orders the maintenance of a dispatcher' office, which shall at all times be in charge of a competent operator.

All orders affecting the movement of trains are to be framed and issued somewhat in the manner of operating locomotives, the order to be made in writing or telephoned to the conductors on the road, and signed for by them when the orders are understood. These orders are to be framed and issued by the dispatcher on duty. The conductors are required to write the orders on an order book, as is also done by the dispatcher, and repeat each order to the dispatcher before signing for same, and then deliver it to the motorman and have him sign his name.

The dispatcher is ordered to keep a daily train movement record sheet, upon which to record the movements of all trains operated, showing the time each train passes reporting stations, together with notes of delays and changes of any trains that do not make the schedule. All conductors are ordered to report by telephone in person to the dispatcher's office the time of their arrival and departure at certain stations specified in the order of the commission.

No work or freight trains shall be operated as a section of a passenger train, and such trains shall not leave reporting stations without orders from the dispatcher, and the trainmen on such trains must be informed of the schedules of all other trains operated, and must keep out of the way of passengers trains, and clear the tracks for same, at least five minutes ahead of their schedule time. All trains run in sections are ordered to carry signals, flags by day and lights by night.

It is provided that the railroad must provide sufficient power to maintain its trains on schedule time, the schedules to be maintained not only between terminal points but between intermediate stations. The company is required to furnish sufficient cars at terminal points at all times to take care of the traffic over the line without crowding its patrons.

All trains of more than one car shall be operated with motor car in front, except that between Aqueduct Bridge and Clarendon, and between Aqueduct Bridge and Arlington Heights. On Arlington reservation, motor cars may push loaded cars up grade. In all cases between these points, when trains are composed of more than one car and going down grades, motor cars shall be in front.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

No Likelihood of War.

New York, July 13.—That there can be no question of war between Japan and the United States is as plain an axiom as that 2 and 2 makes 4" writes Kojino Matsukata, a Japanese of high rank and editor of the Kobe Shinbn, one of the most influential newspapers in Japan, in an editorial in the World today. Mr. Matsukata was educated in America. He is here with Admiral Baron Yamamoto.

"As a nation, we Japanese are puzzled at this war talk," he continued. "There is no real war party in Japan. There are prehaps, 10,000 men out of 50,000,000 who are excited. This class, which here would be probably termed 'jingoes' we call in Japan 'Yakkigums,' or 'thoughtless ones.' But even these do not clamor for war. Their only request is that our government prove itself strong enough to demand redress for the damage inflicted on our countrymen in San Francisco. As for the San Francisco affairs, it is to our mutual national relations as the sting of a gnat on a human body. It the honor of our nation were at stake we would fight. But national honor is not involved. For our sakes we were forced to go to war with Russia. Sooner or later that clash had to come. Your American 'jingoes' can perhaps talk lightly of war. The only battles most of them can remember were those of your Spanish campaign. That contest was so quickly decided and drained the resources of your nation so lightly that you can hardly appreciate our attitude. With us the old father and mother were forced to toil for a livelihood while their sons were on the battlefield. Russia was over eager to expand her territory. America is not. When a man is very rich he often does not know the exact amount of his wealth. So, I think, it is with you Americans. Your prestige is so great you fail to realize its full extent. You are, to my mind, in no danger of war with any power. Few nations could afford to quarrel with the United States. Our trade interests, too, are bound up with yours, and this also makes for peace. The possible sending of your fleet to the Pacific is not looked on by any one in Japan as a menace. We regard the presence of a strong American squadron in Japanese waters more as a guarantee of peace. I cannot understand these wild rumors of war. There is absolutely no foundation for them. Japan owes too much to this country to seek to break the lifelong friendship."

Another Agrarian Uprising.

St. Petersburg, July 13.—Southwestern Russia is once more in the throes of an agrarian uprising. From the Black Sea to the western boundary the peasants are in revolt and are venting their anger on landlords and estate holders. Troops are being hurried into the provinces of Kehrson, Kief, Podolia and Bessarabia. Clashes between the peasants and the meagre forces now present are hourly expected.

Pillaging and conflagrations have marked the progress of the uprising. Scores of landlords have been left homeless after being deprived of all their possessions. Most of them were warned not to return to the provinces under penalty of death.

Bands of peasants, armed with scythes, pitchforks, clubs and time-worn guns, are marching through the affected districts attacking every estate in their path. Hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of property has been destroyed. Several lives have been lost in the frequent clashes between the peasants and soldiers or gendarmes.

Cattle and stock have been butchered or mutilated by the peasants. The armies marching through the provinces live by what they take from pillaged estates. Stock which cannot be used is ruthlessly killed to ruin the owners.

In the government of Perm, on the Siberian border, a condition of affairs similar to that in southwestern Russia exists. Soldiers have been hurried there to prevent the disorders spreading to other governments.

Echoes of the Verdict.

La Plata, Md., July 13.—Rumors of bad blood about to break out between the two families come from their homes, twelve miles away. Each fears the other may make an attempt to openly renew the enmity that has been smouldering since a Bowie was compelled to marry a Posey girl some years ago.

Mrs. Posey swooned away yesterday when she heard the verdict justifying the slayer of her boy for refusing to marry the girl whom it was charged he had betrayed. She is today feeling the effects of the nervous strain of the trial and several months of anxiety.

"They've been freed, it is true" moaned old man Posey. "But God knows they are are murderers, and that my son was innocent. My son is dead; he was a Christian boy. I will meet him, for I intend to follow a Christian life hereafter."

The tears rolled down his cheeks as he gave choking utterance to the feelings that tore his heart.

The winsome little child was an additional ray of sunshine in the Bowie home today. Just after the verdict, sympathizing friends raised a purse and bought toys for the infant. As Priscilla, the mother, went about her customary housework a faint smile would seem to break over her careworn features as she witnessed the antics of the only material bond between herself and the youth whom she so dearly loved, but who had so brutally mistreated her, to his own earthly undoing.

The Brighton Handicap.

New York, July 13.—Fourteen horses are named to start in the $25,000 Brighton handicap, which will be run this afternoon. It is the richest stake offered by the Brighton Beach Racing Association. Peter Pan, James R. Keene's great three-year old, ruled a favorite early today at odds of 8 to 5, with the Durnell pair, Neslon, the winner of the suburban, and Faust, second choices. The Telegraphers Prepared to Strike.

New York, July 13.—"We have assurance that ninety per cent of the total 400 telegraphers in this city will walk out today if we get the word from San Francisco that Commissioner Neill has failed to bring about a settlement," said Charles P. McInerny, secretary-treasurer of the local union today. It is said that the strike here will be probably simultaneous with walk outs in Chicago and other cities. With the telegraphers out in San Francisco, Chicago and New York, the commerce of the country would be entirely tied up, if the union was comparatively successful.

Oakland, Cal., July 13.—United States Labor Commissioner Charles B. Neill, representing President Roosevelt and the government in the controversy between the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies and the Commercial Telegraphers' Union, is today in conference with representatives of both sides. A number of union officials reached here on the same train. Neill has already had a conference with Assistant General Manager Miller, of the Western Union, whose recent refusal to meet the telegraphers has caused much comment. Neill refuses to discuss any phase of the strike.

The Korean Delegation.

The Hague, July 13.—An official statement issued today by the American delegates to The Hague conference explains just what occurred yesterday when the Korean delegation which was excluded from the conference was received by Joseph H. Choate.

The American delegate merely told the Koreans that the United States always felt good will toward Korea, but expressed no opinion about the present condition of the country. He told the Koreans he did not believe any action could be taken here, and that if they desired to make representations to the United States they must address themselves to the government at Washington.

Another Alleged Spy.

San Diego, Cal., July 13.—This community is aroused over the announcement today that a second Japanese has been captured in the act of making plans of Fort Rosecrans. The belief is growing that a systematic effort is being made to obtain drawings and specifications of the fortifications. The spy was a cook, and when his room was searched well-developed plans were found with books on engineering and scientific works which proved conclusively that his employment as cook was merely a side issue. As the penalty for such work in times of peace is not clearly laid down, the officers of the fort merely destroyed the plans and told the prisoner to leave as quickly as possible. In time of war the penalty would be death.

Texas to be Dry Twenty Days.

Dallas, Tex., July 13—The new State liquor law became operative yesterday. It provides especially for Stateprohibition for the next 20 days while the new license system is being put in operation. The license provisions are very drastic. All old licenses are revoked, and the procedure to procure new licenses, covering a period of 20 days, requires that saloons must close during that time. Liquor and brewery interests claim this closing up clause is unconsitutional, as it puts in force practically State prohibition without the consent of the people.

Car's Narrow Escaped.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 13.—A Pennsylvania and Shady avenue car passed over a box containing fourteen sticks of dynamite at Fifth and Bellefield avenues during busy hours of travel last night. Four sticks of the dynamite were broken, but no explosion took place. The dynamite had recently dropped from a contractors' wagon to the street. The box was removed to the police station and was found to also contain fuses with caps to explode the sticks.

The Tennis Cup.

London, July 13.—American chances for lifting the Dwight Davis tennis cup this year are going glimmering as a result of the two decisive defeats administered by the Australian team today in the preliminary rounds. The Americans still have a chance to win the preliminary round which would make the challenging team for the cup, but their chances are not regarded as promising. The Australians now have two of the three points required to win the round to their credit.

Law Not Unconstitutional.

New York, July 13—Corporation Counsel Pendleton today sent to Comptroller Metz an opinion, in which he, in effect, says the new public utilities law, is not unconstitutional and must not be treated as void by the comptroller. This opinion is of utmost importance, as the New York City Commission, under the law, must receive money for its expenses from the comptroller, and it was in regard to recognizing the situation that the comptroller was advised.

Mark Twain Embarks.

London, July 13.—Mark Twain left London this morning on his return to New York, going by rail to Tilbury, where he boarded the steamer Minnesota, which sailed this afternoon. Twain was given a royal farewell both at the London station and at the dock. Dr. Bower, of New York, and a party of other Americans as well as numerous Englishmen accompanied him from London to Tilbury to see him embark.

Afloat in Sea of Oil.

New Orleans, July 13.—A vast lake of oil in the middle of the Gulf of Mexico, seventy miles off the coast of Texas, held fast the British steamship Cuban, which arrived here yesterday from Tampico. The petroleum was so deep that water was cut off from the boilers, and the feed pump took in oil. The surface was like liquid glass, and did not make a ripple as the ship ploughed through it.

General Shake-up Threatened.

New York, July 13.—A general shake-up of police officials in posts of authority at Mulberry street—the general headquarters of the department—is promised by Commissioner Bingham as a sequel to the escape last night of three prisoners from the house of detention, adjoining the station.

Bad Burn Quickly Healed.

"I am so delighted with what Chamberlain's Salve has done for me that I feel bound to write and tell you so," says Mrs. Robert Mytton, 457 John St., Hamilton, Ontario. "My little daughter had a burn on her knee. I applied Chamberlain's Salve and it healed beautifully." This salve allays the pain of a burn almost instantly. It is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Strike Drawing to a Close.

Havana, Cuba, July 13.—A victory for the tobacco strikers, winding up the long continued dispute between the manufacturers and their employes which has pratically tied up the factories for months, is expected to be announced before night. As the workmen have refuse to yield to all the concessions offered them, standing out for the payment of their wages in United States money, the employers have about decided to give in. Negotiations were begun this morning which is believed will terminate the industrial struggle through the granting of the particular demands the men have hung out for.

The New York Stock Market.

New York, July 13.—The accumulation of stocks that was noted on Thursday was more apparent this morning and offers of stocks at advanced prices were accepted as soon as made all through the first hour. This aggressive buying created a strong tone and prices moved up all around the room. Gains of over one point were made in the early trade in all the active railroad issues, while the industrials and Brooklyn Rapid Transit moved up to about the same extent. The market became more active and assumed aggressive strength, reaching the highest level of the day at the close. The tone was strong at the end.

July 13, 1907, at 6:15 a. m., at his late residence, No. 608 north Washington street, LEO J. EWALD, aged 61 years, a native of Bavaria, Germany. Funeral will take place Tuesday, July 16, 1907, from St. Mary's Church. Relatives and friends invited to attend.

HARVEY, son of William and Marion Mayhugh, died at his home, 133 north Payne street, Friday, July 12, at 1.50 p. m.

Angels came to gather flowers
To deck the throne of heaven.
They took the purest and the fairest
That God had ever given.

Lonely the house and sad the hours
Since Harvey has been gone,
But, O, a brighter home than ours
In heaven is his own.

God forgive us, but the longing,
So intense and full of pain,
Just to clasp our Harvey, darling,
Just to feel his kiss again.

Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe in His gentle breast,
There by His love overshadowed,
Sweetly his soul shall rest.

BY HIS PAPA AND MAMA.

CORNERSTONE LAYING.

The cornerstone of the George R. Hill Memorial Building adjoining the M. E Church South was laid yesterday evening with impressive ceremonies by A. drew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, A., F. & A. M., in the presence of a large concourse of people, who listened attentively to all that was said and witnessed the ceremonies with evident interest. There were many ladies in the assemblage.

Governor Swanson, who had reached the church sometime before the appointed hour for the ceremonies, was tendered an ovation.

About five o'clock the company emerged from the church and took position upon the improvised first floor of the building where chairs and tables had been placed. Andrew Jackson Lodge and the Governor and ministers who were to participate in the exercises occupied places on the northeast portion of the structure now in process of erection where the cornerstone was to be laid.

After the rendition of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" by the choir under the direction of Mr. H. K. Field, Worshipful Master J. J. Green of Andrew Jackson Lodge caused the assembly to stand, when Rev. E V. Regester, presiding elder of the Washington District M. E. Church South, invoked the blessing of heaven upon the ceremonies and the assemblage.

Rev. C. D. Bulla, pastor of the church, then arose and in a brief address announced the purpose of the ceremonies about to take place and gave a brief history of the movement toward the erection of the building, as well as its design. Among other things he called attention to the fact that we are the heirs of the ages, and that the gathering was for the purpose of manifesting appreciation of the past and entering into a movement for the betterment of the generations to follow. He referred to the young and the temptations which beset them and the duty incumbent upon the church and community to provide a suitable refuge for such as are yet in their immaturity. The young men and the young women are our jewels, and they should be guarded with jealous care and surrounded with conditions which will enable them to avoid the many pitfalls which beset their paths. Mr. Bulla in referring to the structure now in course of erection said it would cost over $20,000, but that the dividends would be in evidence later on, when it shall have been realized how much good the edifice has wrought in our midst. The speaker then gave a description of the building it is proposed to erect, and said nothing entering in to it should be regarded as too good when its purposes are considered. Mr. Bulla at the close of his remarks introduced his excellency, Governor Claude A. Swanson of Virginia.

The Governor arose amid much applause. Mr. Swanson said he felt highly honored to be present on the occasion as Governor of Virginia, as he was interested in the movement looking toward the erection of the contemplated building and the purposes for which it is designed. It was meet that the State of Virginia should be represented on the occasion by her Governor. He said he had left Richmond at 12 o'clock without having had time to prepare an address. The Governor's speech was therefore impromptu, but it was spirited in no way smelling of the lamp, and he spoke from the soul. The Governor congratulated the congregation of the M. E. Church, its minister and the people of Alexandria for the progress they had made in this laudable movement which was a supplementary church work designed to direct the energies of the young, and referred to his own experience in Danville when a youth. He had found a retreat in a Methodist Sunday school, adjuncts to which were a library, congenial company and innocent pastimes. The speaker said the design of Christianity should be to broaden the mind, not to narrrow it, and he hoped all churches in the community would follow the example set by the congregation of the M. E. Church South. The State had left the religious education to the churches, and there should be no rivalry save that of exertions toward accomplishing the greatest good in the world. The Governor called upon all present to discharge their duty toward the present generation, and its effect would be manifest upon succeeding ages. He said the memorial hall, the corner stone of which was about to be laid, would prove a monument to the faith of those who rear it. The design was in every way commendable—it was for the betterment of the people. Good books were to be furnished the younger generation as well as innocent enjoyments which would enable them to evolve into better men and women. He wanted to see the day when the honors of an institution would not be carried off by the captain of a baseball team. The Governor referred to the large amount of space given by the papers of the day to sports, instead of the more important occurrences of the world. He closed by expressing his earnest wish that the hopes of those engaged in the erection of the memorial hall would be realized to the full.

The Governor contemplated leaving the union station at 6 o'clock for Richmond, and shortly after the close of the speech entered a carriage and was conveyed to the depot.

Worshipful Master Green again called the assemblage to order and the work of placing the cornerstone in position was proceeded with in accordance with the usual Masonic customs.

In the corner stone was placed a box containing the following publications. Doctrines and discipline of the M. E. Church South, 1906; Methodist hymnal; historical sketch of Washington Street M. E. Church South; minutes of the Baltimore Conference, 1844 to 1866; Southern Methodist handbook, Methodism in the Lower Valley of Virginia; minutes of the one hundred and twenty-third session of the Baltimore Annual Conference, M. E Church South; a copy of the Alexandria Gazette and other publications. In addition there were coins and a photograph of George R. Hill, in whose honor the building is named.

The exercises were interspersed with hymns, sung by the special choir. Rev. W. F. Locke, pastor of the Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington, pronounced the benediction.

It is expected that the structure will be completed before the 1st of November. It will represent a total of about $32,000. The building will be two stories high. On the first floor will be located the reading rooms and children's apartments, and the second floor will be the main apartment, designed for lectures and general entertainments.

The building committee is composed of Rev. Charles D. Bulla, E. C. Graham, J. F. Myers, Dr. Charles E. Outcalt and J. Clinton Smoot. The structure was named in honor of the late George R. Hill for many years an active member of the M. E. Church South, whose energies had been directed to the betterment of the younger generation.

SANTIAGO DAY AT LUNA PARK.

Eight hundred Spanish War Veterans and a large constituency of the Alexandria Light Infantry have decided upon July 17th for an outing at Luna Park. Among other features promised will be a realistic representation of the thrilling charge up San Juan Hill, in which the Spanish war veterans will defend the block house, and while the battle is to be a sham one, it will bear close resemblance to genuine warfare in the hands of the gallant troops who will participate. All the manoeuvers and intricacies known to military tact will be mustered into service, of course, keeping within the bounds of that which is chronicled in history relative to this most thrilling of charges. Many of the original uniforms that saw service in the event which will be mimicked on the 17th, will be worn, and all the minute details will be carefully cared for by competent staff officers, thoroughly qualified to arrange an affair of this kind. Department Commander Colonel Walter Mitchell will act as chairman, and a day of retrospection and pleasureable pastime is anticipated.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Laura Richards, the thirteen-year-old girl who was arrested Thursday night charged with immorality, was held until she can be placed in a reformatory institution.

DEATH OF MR. EWALD.

Mr. Leo J. Ewald, who had for some time been suffering from a complication of diseases, died at his home, 608 north Washington street, this morning. The deceased was 61 years old. He was a native of Bavaria, Germany, but came to this country in early life. About 25 years ago he removed from Cleveland, Ohio, to this city and became an employee at the Portner Brewery and continued in his occupation until failing health compelled him to relinquish the same. He leaves a widow and six children—three sons and three daughters.

SPECTATORS SCARCE.

But a corporal's guard appeared outside the bar in the Police Court this morning, and most of them took position against the west wall. Some took seats in windows where they remained until ordered out of the same. This was in consequence of Justice Caton's action yesterday in excluding all from the court room who had no business there. As was stated, later in the day one of the men who had been ordered out sought Justice Caton and asked him what he meant when he suggested that the spectators should be at work. The justice replied, "Exactly what I said." The interviewer endeavored to continue the colloquy, but the justice passed on up the street.

DISORDERLY YOUNG MAN.

About two o'clock this morning Officers Nicholson and Talbot took an eighteen-year-old youth named Fleetwood Fisher in custody on north Lee street. He had previously thrown a rock against the door of a house. When the officers approached him he became defiant. Fisher was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton fined him $5.

Birds and Kites.

No bird, so far as known records show, has ever alighted on a kite or attacked one. While a scientist was flying a train of five kites some years ago a large silver tipped eagle came suddenly out of the higher air and swooped round and round the first kite, looking against the sunset sky like a huge silver ball. As the train of kites was pulled in the eagle followed, visiting one kite and then another, seeming uncertain just what to do. In a few minutes, when he seemed to have decided that they were not good to eat and he knew nothing about them, anyway, he indignantly flew off and was lost to view. While the scientist's kites were high in the air one March flocks of geese flying in the wedge flew over. They invariably stopped, broke up, hovered above the queer object and at last slowly reformed and flew away. While the larger birds all come from heights above the kite, the small birds of the air will alight on the string holding the kite and sway to and fro.

Mysterious Glass Balls.

According to a foreign correspondent of the geological survey at Washington, among the most interesting features of the small island of Billiton, between Sumatra and Borneo, an island long famous for its rich tin mines, controlled by the Dutch government, are the "glass balls of Billiton," found among the tin ore deposits. These natural glass balls are round, with grooved surfaces. Similar phenomena are occasionally found in Borneo and Java as well as in Australia. The correspondent quoted thinks they cannot be artificial, and there are no volcanoes near enough to support the theory that they are volcanic bombs. Besides, it is claimed, the glassy rocks produced by the nearest volcanoes are quite different in their nature from the material of the balls. It is suspected that the mysterious objects were ejected ages ago from the volcanoes of the moon and afterward fell upon the earth.

"Caracul"—Its Etymology.

I have often been asked for the etymology of "caracul," which is a term now largely used by furriers to denote a variety of the fur called astrakhan. The new English dictionary does not contain caracul, but it has caracal, which is liable to be confused with it, though really quite a different word. The caracal is an animal, but caracul, like the nearly synonymous term, astrakhan, is the name of a place—Kara Kul—i. e., the Black lake, near Bokhara, which has long been celebrated for its output of furs. The earliest reference I can find to it in English is in Matthew Arnold's "Sohrab and Rustum:"

Living In the Electric Light.

Writing to a friend in the country, a New York merchant says: "I live in the electric light. I leave my home at 7 o'clock, after dressing and taking my breakfast by electric light. Then I go to the subway, one block distant, and ride to within a block of my office. There I work all day by electric light and go home again by the subway and spend the evening in the glare of the incandescent lamp. The weather conditions make no difference, because my flat and my office belong to the semidark kind. Sometimes I wonder what I would do without electric light, and sometimes I ask myself when I yearn for a little sunlight, Is the new light really a blessing?"—New York Tribune.

John Stuart Mill.

The genius of this great Englishman was such that before he was twenty he was recognized as the champion and future leader of a powerful school of philosophy and politics. John Stuart Mill is said to have studied Greek at the age of three and at fourteen had begun logic and political economy. The writings and doctrines of this master mind were and are still read and preached not only in this country, but throughout the world. John Stuart Mill stands out prominently among nineteenth century thinkers.—London Mail.

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. K. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

Best Medicine in the World for Colic and Diarrhoea.

"I find Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to be the best remedy in the world," says Mr. C. L. Carter of Skirum, Ala. "I am subject to colic and diarrhoea. Last spring it seemed as though I would die, and I think I would if I hadn't taken Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I haven't been troubled with it since until this week, when I had a severe attack and took half a bottle of the twenty-five cent size Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and this morning I feel like a new man." For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson and Timberman.
